
Suzanne H. Dolbin

Suzanne H. Dolbin, 67, of Dillsburg and formerly of Enola, passed away Saturday, December 22, 2012, at her home surrounded by her loving husband, daughter and caregivers.

Born in Harrisburg, PA on April 26, 1945, she was the daughter of Walter and Thelma Hoopes.

Suzanne was a retired mathematics teacher of 29 years from Dauphin County Technical School; a graduate of Shippensburg State College and Susquehanna High School. She loved her dogs and volunteered at bible school and served as Controller at her church St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Enola. Suzanne was a founding member of the Obedience Training Club of Harrisburg, an American Kennel Club Tracking Judge, and member of Dauphin Dog Training Club. Upon retirement from teaching, Suzanne was employed by H & R Block, Mechanicsburg for 10 years.

Suzanne is survived by her husband of 48 years, Gary C. Dolbin; her daughter Christine M. Miller; her granddaughter Morgan M. Miller; her son-in-law Ralph M. Miller, Jr. of New Bloomfield; and her Rottweilers CJ and Indy. She was preceded in death by her parents and sister Sandra Lingenfelter.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Thursday, December 27th at 11 a.m. at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 6839 Wertzville Road, Enola with the Rev. Anna Reeves officiating.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to her church; Obedience Training Club of Harrisburg, 1 Souder Court, Mechanicsburg, PA 17050; or Dauphin Dog Training, 719 Manada Bottom Road, Harrisburg, PA 17112.
